What is PBIS?

PBIS is an approach that schools can use to improve school safety and promote positive behavior. It's also a way for schools to decide how to respond to a child who misbehaves.

PBIS has a few important principles:

- 🌀 Every child can learn proper behavior.
- 🌀 Stepping in early can prevent more serious behavior problems.
- 🌀 Each child is different and schools need to provide many kinds of behavior support.
- 🌀 How schools teach behavior should be based on research and science.
- 🌀 Following a child's behavioral progress is important.
- 🌀 Schools must gather and use data to make decisions about behavior problems.

Consequences are still given for inappropriate behavior. These consequences may include:

- 🌀 sent to another classroom for a break
- 🌀 sent to the strategy room to problem solve
- 🌀 hallway strategy reports
- 🌀 time spent after school
- 🌀 out of school suspension

- ☀ Students and staff are able to state the expectations.
- ☀ Staff members model PBIS expectations for students.
- ☀ Students are rewarded for displaying appropriate behavior in school.
- ☀ With PBIS we hope to reach all students by positively teaching and reinforcing expectations, therefore affording all students the rewards of positive choices.

How Can Parents Help with Positive Behavior Support?

Parents and guardians play a crucial role in PBIS. Here are some suggestions you can use at home to help your student embrace Positive Behavior Support.

- ☀ Be a good role model.
- ☀ Talk to your student about their school day.
- ☀ Ask your student about the expectations at school and if they have received any Positive Behavior Stops.
- ☀ Keep communication between you and your student's teacher active throughout the school year.
- ☀ Focus on the positive choices your student is making.
